

Steel Sports Tournament Spectator and Coach Expectations

Teamwork, Respect, Integrity and Commitment are the core values of Steel Sports. We at Steel Sports are asking for your support in providing a positive environment for all participants. Our core values are taught through athletic competition and interactions with all participants and provide the foundation for good sportsmanship and character. In keeping with these core values, the spirit of competition thrives.

* Teamwork *

- Avoid coaching your child and allow the coaches to coach.
- Accept mistakes and help the players learn from them.
- Cheer for your child when they play well. However, remember that your child is a member of a team. Let the other players know you support them too.

* Respect *

- Practice self-control and set a positive example for others.
- Demonstrate courteous behavior at all times to opposing players, coaches, fans and umpires.
- Hold your child accountable for their behavior.

* Integrity *

- Maintain a positive attitude regardless of the situation.
- Handle winning with class and losing with grace.
- Understand that both winning and building character are equally important to the players and team.

* Commitment *

- Help the players embrace their roles at any given moment.
- Recognize the hard work and effort each coach, player and umpire has put in prior to the game.

Steel Sports has final say on appropriate and inappropriate behavior. Steel Sports management reserves the right to refuse admission or eject any person whose conduct is deemed by management to be disorderly or who fails to comply with the rules and regulations of Steel Sports tournaments.
